

Yixiang KelvinLee

SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

A recent Computer Science graduate with a strong drive for creating innovative software solutions. I bring two years of hands-on experience in web development, where I've crafted dynamic and effective websites. Proficient in HTML, PHP, and Python, I have also developed web and mobile applications and gained experience in software debugging. I am now seeking a 3+ month internship, starting from September 1, 2024, where I can apply my skills in a professional setting and further expand my technical knowledge.
